We had an amazing time with Bugman on Wednesday! It was lovely to see how excited and engaged the children were to see all the mini-beasts.

A few reminders for next week and after half term.

Week commencing 10th February:

Thursday - carnival day, please can children come dressed in bright colours.

Friday - homework show and tell.

Due to carnival day and homework show and tell, there will be no show and tell on Thursday.

Children will be bringing home their common-exception words that can be practised reading and writing at home, this will really help with their writing in English and across all foundation subjects. Thank you so much for your support in this.

Week commencing 24th February:

World book week - our focus is poetry.

After school 26th, 27th, 28th, 3rd - book fair.

Tuesday 25th - poet visit - Joshua Siegal. Please feel free to look at his work with your child at home.

Thursday 27th - book club. Please can all children bring in their favourite book. We will have an opportunity for all children to tell their friends about their book, why they like it so much and read an extract from.

Book swap - please bring in any year 2 age related books that children would like to swap. We will plan the book swap for the following week so we can collect all the books across the year group.

AFTER HALF TERM PE WILL RETURN TO A THURSDAY.
