GENERAL REMINDERS:

The first week back after half term is Poetry week! We have lots of exciting things planned for the children, including a visit from poet Joshua Siegel. He will be signing books in the library after school on Tuesday 25th February.

World Book Day is on Thursday the 27th of February. The children are able to come in dressed up as a character from a book!

Please look out for their book tokens which have been handed out on Friday 14th February. You can use this to get a free book from most bookstores or use it to receive £1 off any book over £2.99.

We would love it if during this week the children could bring in their favourite book to talk about, as well as one book that they no longer read (in good condition) for our book swap.
