

This week's plans

English:

This week the children will be retelling the story "Zoo" by Anthony Browne. Using our previous learning to assist, the children will be completing their independent write this week.

Reading:

We will continue reading 'The song of the dolphin boy' by Elizabeth Laird.

Maths

We will be learning about decimals. We will be focusing on hundredths and partitioning decimals. Please find the maths knowledge organisers for Year 4

Geography

This half term the children will be learning about mountains. This week the children will be using google maps to locate mountain ranges across Europe.

Science

In science this week we will begin learning about the digestive system, looking specifically at what organs are involved.

Art

This half term the children will be learning about collage. They will be learning about Eileen Agar and her work. This week we will be planning a collage piece based on the seaside inspired by Eileen Agar.

For our seaside collage the children will be using shells. If you happen to be visiting the seaside please try and collect some (we do not need them next week)
